

NZSAR
New Zealand Search
and Rescue

Marine SAR Workshop (II) 2011

Open Sessions – Identifying Issues & finding the way forward

NZSAR

New Zealand Search
and Rescue

Conflict of Interest

NZSAR
New Zealand Search
and Rescue

Winning Matters – being the best you can be

By Sean Fitzpatrick

...to be successful – to reach the stage of being the best that you can be – you need to keep your ears open. You have to be able to take and process feedback

NZSAR
New Zealand Search
and Rescue

Winning Matters – being the best you can be

By Sean Fitzpatrick

You have to be very committed to the cause of hearing what you need to hear rather than just what you want to hear

Be honest – go Dutch

NZSAR
New Zealand Search
and Rescue

Winning Matters – being the best you can be

By Sean Fitzpatrick

You can't walk backwards into tomorrow

The world changes, things move on and to succeed you need to be agile, flexible and open to doing things differently

Issues = tension points between organisations involved in marine SAR that impact on performance

Session One – what are the issues, as identified by the agencies...?

Session Two – what are the issues, as identified by the Regions...?

Session Three – what are the underlying factors contributing to each of those issues...?

Session Four – finding the way forward

Issues = tension points between organisations involved in marine SAR that impact on performance

Session One – what are the issues, as identified by the agencies...?

Jean Batten – Police, RCCNZ, NZDF & Harbour Masters

Richard Pearse – SLNZ, Coastguard, Helicopters & LandSAR

Session Two – what are the issues, as identified by the Regions...?

Jean Batten – Northern and Central Zones

Richard Pearse – Eastern and Southern Zones

Session Three – what are the underlying factors contributing to each of those issues...?

Jean Batten – Northern and Eastern Zones

Richard Pearse – Central and Southern Zones